This dialogue will synthesize what we have learned about healing ourselves and healing the system of higher education. Tools and practices will be provided for radically reimagining, individually and collectively, what it means to be a human being within our institutions.

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Dr. Joy Blanchard
Associate Professor of Higher Education Graduate Programs, Louisiana State University

Dr. Hollie Chessman
Director of Research, American Council on Education

What can contemplative practice mean in the community college setting? This webinar will share and discuss experience and research around community college contemplative practice, looking at themes of access, language and community. The presenters will also discuss practical ways contemplative practices can be used in the community college classroom and beyond.

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Dr. Marlon Blake
Associate Dean of Students, University of St. Thomas

Stephanie Briggs
Owner/designer, Be.Still.Move

Dr. Amy Pucino
Associate Professor of Sociology, Community College of Baltimore County

This dynamic faculty duo will shed light on the faculty experience amid the pandemic: their perspectives on their own woundedness and that of their students in this moment of racial reckoning and grand transformation. The presenters will engage our imaginations to envision what healing might look, feel, and be like on campuses across the country.

THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Dr. Maria Hamilton Abegunde
Assistant Professor of African American and African Diaspora Studies, Indiana University Bloomington

Dr. Ricardo Montelongo
Associate Professor, Department of Educational Leadership, Sam Houston State University

This conversation will center the issues of racial injustice and inequity that have existed on many American college and university campuses. How might colleges and universities begin the institutional work of racial justice, truth-telling, reconciliation, and healing while simultaneously understanding the inner work of racial justice and healing?

THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Dr. Tia Brown McNair
Vice President, Office of Diversity, Equity, and Student Success, American Association of Colleges and Universities

Rhonda Magee
Professor of Law, University of San Francisco

This dialogue will synthesize what we have learned about healing ourselves and healing the system of higher education. Tools and practices will be provided for radically reimagining, individually and collectively, what it means to be a human being within our institutions.

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Dr. Mays Imad
Assistant Professor of Biology, Connecticut College

Dr. J. Cody Nielsen
Director, Center for Spirituality and Social Justice, Dickinson College

All webinars moderated by Dr. David W. Robinson-Morris
Executive Director, CMind

CONTEMPLATIVEMIND.ORG/HHE